

THE NATURAL PHILOSOPHER

At The Natural Philosopher, our philosophy is simple; make tasty drinks using unusual, seasonal, and foraged ingredients.

With the rising cost of living affecting both our guests and our business, it is really important to us that we offer a small range of more affordable items so that all may feel welcome and enjoy themselves within their budgets.

Our new pricing structure and menu layout reflects our wish to continue to be inclusive to as wide a range of people and circumstances as possible.

We add a discretionary 12.5% service charge onto bills. We pay 100% of service to our team.
